3. Defendant agrees to plead guilty to the charge pursuant to the plea agreement on or before February 21, 2008.

4. The material witnesses, Juana Manzanares-Ayala, Jose Manuel Molina-Gutierrez, A. L-M (a male juvenile), and Jaime Lara-Montes De Oca, in this case:

a. Are aliens with no lawful right to enter or remain in the United States;

b. Entered or attempted to enter the United States illegally on or about January 20, 2008;

c. Were found in rural terrain near the international border with Mexico and were being guided by defendant, and defendant knew of the fact that they were aliens with no lawful right to enter or remain in the United States;

d. Were paying or having others pay on their behalf $1,500-$1,800 to others to be brought into the United States illegally and/or transported illegally to their destination therein; and,

e. May be released and remanded immediately to the Department of Homeland Security for return to their country of origin.

5. After the material witnesses are ordered released by the Court pursuant to this stipulation and joint motion, if defendant does not plead guilty to the charge set forth above, for any reason, or thereafter withdraws his guilty plea to that charge, defendant agrees that in any proceeding, including, but not limited to, motion hearings, trial, sentencing, appeal or collateral attack, that:

a. The stipulated facts set forth in paragraph 4 above shall be admitted as substantive evidence;

b. The United States may elicit hearsay testimony from arresting agents regarding any statements made by the material witness(es) provided in discovery, and such testimony shall be admitted as substantive evidence under Fed. R. Evid. 804(b)(3) as statements against interest

2 c. Understanding that under Crawford v. Washington, 124 S. Ct. 1354 (2004), 3 "testimonial" hearsay statements are not admissible against a defendant unless defendant confronted
4 and cross-examined the witness(es) who made the "testimonial" hearsay statements, defendant
5 waives the right to confront and cross-examine the material witness(es) in this case.

6 6. By signing this stipulation and joint motion, defendant certifies that defendant has 7 read it (or that it has been read to defendant in defendant's native language). Defendant certifies
8 further that defendant has discussed the terms of this stipulation and joint motion with defense
9 counsel and fully understands its meaning and effect.

10 Based on the foregoing, the parties jointly move the stipulation into evidence and for the 11 immediate release and remand of the above-named material witness(es) to the Department of
